UVI Falcon vs Omnisphere? Hi all, I've been recently looking for a new VST, I currently have Serum and Both are very powerful and sound great. For soundscapes and granular, I personally like Omnisphere 2 more, but that is preference. The library offers lots of sounds to choose from and I like the granular GUI and sound more in Omnisphere. I've never used Omnisphere, but I just bought UVI Falcon 2.. Just had a look at various UVI Falcon videos on YouTube, and it appears ... And even if Omnisphere did someday get one-upped in every way Falcon seems much more like a cross between Reaktor and Kontakt than ANYTHING to do with Omnisphere. Flexible macros, scripting, and much more choice and detailed control over sound sources. Omnisphere is a 'deep synth' (SHOT!) with a very big and interesting library (though it's a bit short on staples).. Omnisphere 2, HALion 5 and Falcon are all superb software instruments of ... of Spectrasonic's Omnisphere 2, Steinberg's HALion 5 and UVI's Falcon, that's no ... b6161d3637
